

On Sunday, October 6th, 2013, we will once again display our noble heritage and culture at the 76th Annual Pulaski Day Parade on Fifth Avenue in New York City. This year's Parade theme, following last year's Diamond Jubilee Celebration, is March, March, Polonia, March the Proud Nation. While we celebrated a great milestone last year, we wish to convey that, as the second oldest ethnic Parade in New York City, Polonia will march proudly into the future, replete with our colorful regalia and trumpeting our history.

Leading us this year will be Grand Marshal Michael Kulawik, a businessman from Ozone Park, Queens, New York, and a pillar of pride for Polonia. Under his leadership, we will continue the task of forever preserving our culture and reminding the world of the contributions of Poland and its Sons and Daughters to the world's civilization.

Join us at our Grand Banquet presentation of the Miss Polonias and Contingent Marshals at the Marriott Marquis on September 28th, 2013. Be sure to attend the Polish Mass in honor of Pulaski at St. Patrick's Cathedral beginning at 9:00 am followed by our celebratory Breakfast at 10:30 am at the 3 West Club culminating with the greatest demonstration of Polish Pride on earth, the Annual Pulaski Day Parade!
