

OCTOBER 4, 2015:

The 78th Annual Pulaski Day Parade begins on Fifth Avenue at 12:30 pm celebrating “Polish-American Businesses and Leaders, the Building of America” and commemorating the sacrifice of our hero, General Casimir Pulaski, Father of the American Cavalry, in the War of American Independence.

In 2015, the ‘Greatest Manifestation of Polish Pride in America’, the Pulaski Parade, will be led by the Honorable Arthur Dybanowski, the youngest Grand Marshal in our Parade’s history. As a business leader in Greenpoint, Brooklyn, NY, the ‘Cradle of Polonia in America’, he is well suited to show our pride in our accomplishments, contributions and heritage. His youth and enthusiasm reflects our vibrant culture in America.

Join us at our Grand Banquet where our talented and beautiful Miss Polonias and the Contingent Marshals of Polonia will be presented at the Marriott Marquis on Saturday, September 26, 2015.

Begin the morning of Parade Day with a solemn Celebration of the Liturgy at 9:00 am at St. Patrick’s Cathedral and fortify yourselves by attending the Pulaski Parade Breakfast at the 3 West Club at 10:30 am.

MARCH ON, POLONIA, MARCH ON!
