*Dear Mr. President,
Dear Friends,*

Thank you very much for your kind invitation to the 88th Annual Pulaski Day Parade, which will take place on Sunday, October 5, 2025. Although I am unable to join you in person, I am honored to extend my warmest greetings and heartfelt congratulations to all participants and organizers of this special celebration.

This year's theme – the 1000th Anniversary of the Kingdom of Poland – reminds us of the enduring strength of Polish statehood and tradition. It is also a powerful symbol of the values we continue to share and defend together: freedom, dignity, and the right of nations to determine their own destiny.

General Casimir Pulaski, whose legacy you so proudly honor, embodies the deep historical ties between Poland and the United States. His sacrifice for American independence stands as a timeless testimony to the unity of our nations and the strength of our alliance.

Today, the Polish-American partnership is stronger than ever. Poland and the United States stand side by side within NATO, building security and stability for Europe and the transatlantic community. This strategic alliance is vital not only for our nations, but for the entire free world.

I would also like to emphasize the extraordinary role of the Polish-American community. The voice of the Polonia in the United States carries great importance – strengthening ties between our countries, fostering understanding, and ensuring that the partnership between Poland and America continues to grow. Your commitment, energy, and dedication to preserving Polish heritage abroad are a source of immense pride for the homeland.

On this festive occasion, I wish you a joyful celebration, full of pride in our common history and confidence in our shared future. May the spirit of General Pulaski continue to inspire generations of Poles and Americans alike.

Yours sincerely

Władysław KOSINIAK-KAMYSZ
